

Curley Scores Big Gain in Straw Poll

Ex-Governor Receives 2822 Votes as End of Battering Nears

By FRANK K. REILLY

Announcement that the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser mayors straw vote poll is in view at midnight tomorrow (Wednesday) brought a new stamp of paper ballots to the office of these newspapers today.

Former Governor James M. Curley, leader in the contest, received 2822 votes today, bringing his total since the inception of the tally to 32,822.

Former Mayor Malcolm F. Nichols was credited with 553 ballots today, School Commissioner Maurice J. Tobin with 438, District Attorney William J. Foley with 333, and former Representative Alfred Santuosso with 262.

Present standing of the candidates is as follows:

James M. Curley	32,822
William J. Foley	18,354
Malcolm F. Nichols	5,553
Maurice J. Tobin	4,338
Alfred Santuosso	2,622
Carlton L. Brett	262

From the viewpoint of public interest, this has been one of the most interesting mayoral straw ballot polls ever conducted by the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser.

It is the desire of the editors of these newspapers that the poll be equally successful in indicating the probable winner of the November 2 election, but that reason alone does not justify the poll.

City voters will mark in their favorite candidate and place it in the mail at once.

Candidates Begin 'Drives' at Rallies

Bostonians tonight will be treated to the spectacle of one of the liveliest political evenings in recent years.

Each of the six mayoralty candidates has arranged for a special schedule of rallies in large schools and public buildings to-night, and indications are that it will be one of the most interesting of the season.

Many sections of the city from Boston to Hyde Park will be crowded with mayoralty candidates and their campaign staffs.

GEN. JOHNSON SAYS: Mutinies on U. S. Ships Peril Lives

General Hugh S. Johnson, militant crusader against political quacks and demagogues, writes his second column for the Boston Evening American. In the month since NPA's blue eagle was laid to rest, General Johnson has emerged as the most eloquent defender of the American credo.

His daily observations, written with colorful power, have been read by millions. His radio voice has thrilled a myriad of listeners. General Johnson's second-edged comment on the news of the hour will be a daily feature in these columns.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The mutiny on the Agate, says Chairman Kennedy of the Maritime Commission, is "outrageous." But it is merely a symptom of a general condition which Mr. Kennedy calls "definitely bad."

The Agate's 1st of discipline on board American vessels is common talk in the Far East, both among Americans and other nations, and predictions are freely made that a major disaster of the first magnitude will be visited if such conditions are allowed to continue.

Disipline (first class) has resulted in some of the most disastrous episodes in the history of the maritime industry. Policeman's Career Ends at 41 But He Carries On With a Smile

His Leg Amputated After Two Injuries Saving Children

"Police Commissioner Timmly announced the retirement of Patrolman Henry F. Hogan, 41, of Mather street, Dorchester"—news item.

"Life begins at 40," retirement at 41. Here was a story.

As a small boy, Hogan "always wanted to be a policeman."

He waited for that day that came July 27, 1928, when he was appointed to the force.

During his probationary period while attached to the East Boston station they called him one of the most promising members of the force. Patrolman Hogan was a "Mather street" boy.

THEN COMES MISFORTUNE

In his first week of duty he was assigned to stop the fast-growing epidemic of howling street dogs.

Hogan saved the life of a small dog by hitting it with his club. Then one day he was saving a child from a car.

He gave chase but had run only a few blocks when he fell and fractured his right leg.

He spent weeks in the hospital but then quickly kept Hogan down. He never wanted to be a policeman.

When he was back on the street, doing his job as usual, one day he was hit again when his club was thrown at him.

THEN ANOTHER INJURY

About a year later Patrolman Hogan was standing at Chelsea and Essex streets, East Boston, when a runaway horse reared by him.

Patrolman Hogan stepped back but suffered another fracture of the leg when he was thrown.

Infection set in. Surgeons were summoned, operations performed.

Three weeks later Hogan had been told he was to amputate the leg to save his life.

A man with a broken heart who wanted to walk down the street in a blue uniform told him to go ahead.

Even though he still felt he could never be a member of the force, perhaps he was at some station.

But he soon realized that his amputation would make it impossible. His career was ended because of injuries suffered in the performance of his duty.

ONE SILVER LINING

Patrolman Hogan has four small children, Peggy, Virginia, Barbara, and Harry.

Maybe Harry will some day wear that blue uniform.

At the Hogan home today the patrolman still found it easy to smile. He let his wife tell what was in his mind.

"The tough luck. But we'll have to take it," she said quietly. And she knew her husband was right.

Hogan's retirement, however, of better Sunday. He will receive compensation from the Police Commission Retirement Board.

War's fires and bombs shattered and laid ruin famous Rheims Cathedral 19 years ago. Its architectural magnificence was battered, its famous spires and Gothic towers crashed and for years no persons were allowed to enter it.

But now, the massive edifice has been restored—chiefly through the liberality of John D. Rockefeller, 11th cousin, many of the statues, the stained glass and other art treasures were ruined beyond repair, but the photograph shows how the magnificence has been largely restored.

Betty Alden on 'Beacon Hill'

Mary Louise Higgins Presented
At Chilton Club Luncheon
By BETTY ALDEN

MRS. LEWIS I. PROUTY, who is better known to the public as Olive Higgins Proudy, popular authoress of "Stella Dallas" and other best sellers, has often been besieged by autograph hunters. So it was perhaps a subconscious desire to turn the tables on these John Hancock hunters which caused her to think of one of the unique features of the luncheon which she gave in honor of her niece, Mary Louise Higgins, at the Chilton Club today.

The signature was carefully cut from the bottom of the note which each guest sent to accept Mrs. Proudy's invitation to the luncheon, and made into a little place card. So only those very few debutantes who, and we won't mention names—who now and then admit that they can't read their own writing, had any difficulty in finding their places at the luncheon tables.

NANCY NYE

debutante guest had an uproarious time reading the analysis of her faults and attributes, to the great amusement of her friends. Miss Higgins, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Higgins of Worcester, wore a black velvet dress with a matching hat and a corsage of autumn flowers, while both Mrs. Proudy and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Higgins, were modestly dressed in black crepe dresses with matching hats.

Miss Proudy's daughter, Mrs. William Mason Smith, Jr., Janet Proudy of New York, had to make a last minute change in her plans to come over for the party, so was unable to attend. But others present were a great many of Miss Higgins' sister debs, including Jean Carpenter, Helen Clifton, Florence Forbes, Isabel Finski, Phyllis Childs, Mary Gray, Joan Halladay, Katherine Jackson, Margaret Mason, Mary Merrill, Marjorie Pinner, Patricia Pinner, Janet Pinner, Janet Simmons, Jane Swift, Nancy Tucker and Sylvia Van Ness.

Miss Higgins is a graduate of the Barnard School in Worcester and Miss Porter's in Farmington. This coming Sunday she will be presented at a tea at her parents' home in Worcester, and on Thanksgiving Day her sister and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alden C. Higgins of Worcester, will give a tea dance in her honor.

Lecture Ushers Feted at Tea

COME WHAT MAY in the way of Friday evening bulk and parties, the group of debutantes who have been invited to usher at the Barnard lectures for the benefit of the Children's Friend Society, will have to be up bright and early on the Saturday mornings when it is their turn to usher. The first in the series of eight lectures, by Dr. George E. Raiguel, will take place this coming Saturday at 11 a. m. in the ballroom of the Hotel Somerset. And yesterday afternoon the debutante ushers received last minute instructions on what is expected of them at a tea at the home of Mrs. Henry A. Moss, Charlestown East.

Betty Alden, who is to be head usher, was unable to be present to give the girls a "tip" but her place was very helpfully explained by the procedure of ushering. Patty Spencer, one of the ushers' most gracious debs, looked very up and coming in a gold and black lace dress with a black tulle trimmed with a band of embroidered lace. Jane Swift, another attractive deb, wore a gray wool dress piped with black velvet, and trimmed with black frills, while Jean Clark wore a good looking costume suit of wine red wool trimmed with Persian lamb. Mrs. William C. Foster, chairman of the ushers' committee, and Mrs. Edgar C. Rust, pointed and others present were a number of board members of the Children's Friend Society, including Mrs. Samuel Stevens, Mrs. Huntington Hardwick and Mrs. F. Reed Eastbrook, who acquainted the girls with the work done by the society in caring for 400 children a year.

New York Debut by Catherine Ames

THOUGH THE DEBUTANTE season is officially open in New York, now that the annual Tuxedo Ball has taken place, the real height of the deb festivities in Gotham is around Christmas time when all the young gals who make up the stag lines are home from Eastern colleges.

One of the important dances scheduled for the holiday season will have a large Boston contingent present. One of the guests of honor, Catherine Ames, is considered just as much a Boston deb as one of the Gotham belles. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Ames of New York and North Easton, Mass., and a niece of the large and influential Ames family of Boston. She and her mother are living at the Copley Plaza at present so she can take in all the parties of her sister debs here. Catherine's New York party will be a dance, December 27, at the St. Regis, at which she will share honors with Harriet L. Richard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Richard of Park Avenue. Harriet is also spending the autumn here, as the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. August Hemenway, and will be presented to Boston society at a ball at the Somerset, November 12.

Bermuda Honeymoon For Nat Clarks

A PROMINENT SOCIETY couple, honeymooning in Bermuda, is Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Clark of Dover, who were married about ten days ago at a fashionable wedding in Wellesley, followed by a large reception at the Dover home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKay Frost. She is the former Jane Frost. Mr. Clark is the son of J. Duplex Clark of Herford street, and a brother of C. Forrester. Tim Clark, well known polo player.

Lecture, Luncheon On Day's Program

Helen Leonard Wilson discussed Junior High School at the initial session of the series at the Hotel Vendue.

THIS EVENING
8:00 p. m.—Winchester Fortnightly Club, in Fortnightly Hall, lecture.
WEDNESDAY
10:45 a. m.—Wednesday Morning Club, Hotel Somerset, meeting with Mrs. Joseph H. Shortell, who about to put another feather in her cap in the organization of this group. Rehearsal of a monument to the city's first mayor. The party will be a black crop of festivity trimmed with satin, all of which means no traveling. For her cluster of baby umbles, fellow workers, tribute to her executive abilities. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lavelle, who chose black crop, if it were really embroidered, with satin, Mrs. John Waters, who is acting as the hostess, secretary of the group, was smart in dark brown tulle with gilt, and Mrs. Thomas Lavelle.

Inexpensive Luscious Desserts

By MARTHA LEE

WOULD YOU be interested in hearing about a luscious dessert that beats the rising prices?

Well, we offer one today that is inexpensive and easy to make—that hard-to-find combination.

What is this dessert? It's a luscious cake that requires only one egg. This fluffy treat may be used with other eggs or for cottage pudding to be served with cream, fruit or chocolate sauce.

Will give you the recipe and point out to judge for yourself just how easy it is to make.

CHOCOLATE TARTAR CRÈME

1 1/2 cup triple-cream shortening
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup milk

Combine triple-cream shortening and salt and sugar gradually and cream until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat for 10 minutes. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and milk together and add to creamed mixture. Beat for 10 minutes. Bake in a 9x5 inch loaf pan at 350° for 1 hour. Cool in pan 10 minutes. Turn out and cool. Cut into slices. Serve with chocolate sauce.

UNCOOKED CHOCOLATE FROSTING

1 tablespoon triple-cream shortening
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
1/2 cup milk

Melt shortening, butter and sugar in a double boiler. Sift flour and confectioners' sugar together. Add to melted mixture. Beat for 10 minutes. Add milk. Beat for 10 minutes. Use for frosting cakes or cookies.

September Rail Net Increases

First Railroads to Report Earnings
Show Cost Cut

Railroad statistics have been being engaged in analyzing September results to report earnings. A larger proportion of the gross than in the previous month. However, despite the better control of operating expenses responsible for the improved showing, net operating income continued its fall under a year ago.

In August, the year net operating income of the first group of railroads to report earnings fell 14.4 percent from the figure reported in 1944. The figure improved to 12.7 percent for the same period in 1945.

The comparison between September and last year shows a similar picture. In 1944, the net operating income of the first group of railroads to report earnings fell 14.4 percent from the figure reported in 1944. The figure improved to 12.7 percent for the same period in 1945.

As the special session of Congress nears completion, many are predicting that the new law proposed by the administration, known as the Revenue Act of 1945, will be passed.

The answer is that it will be the normal course of events. The new law is expected to be passed in the next few months.

Stock prices as measured by the averages have now rebounded to levels where they were further opening would result in two important happenings.

First an extending of the period of low prices. Second, if it takes place it will mark the first time since the depression that a rally high enough to bring the market back to the level of 1929.

Both the Dow Jones industrial and rail averages follow the action above the last will automatically be considered to have reversed the downturn and many observers will expect an active, profitable market to warrant forecasts of much higher prices. From the standpoint of both time and extent it is entirely possible that the recovery will be a normal expansion in the next few months.

Nursing Group Extolled by Mrs. Dreyfus

American Publisher's
Wife Explains Work
To Ad Club Women

Constance Dreyfus, wife of the publisher of the American, explained the work of the American Nurses' Association to the Ad Club women at a luncheon given at the Hotel Newbury on Tuesday.

"It really serves a two-fold purpose in its efforts to supply a well trained, practical nurse who will be available to those of moderate means, and at the same time to make available a good and quick profitable avenue to women."

Casey Stengel Smart Baseball Manager Will Help Bees In Flag Fight

By JACK CONWAY

CASEY STENGEL, new manager of the Bees, will give the club the fire and color it requires to make a strong bid for the first division next year.

I believe Bob Quinn made the best possible selection when he signed Stengel to manage the Bees. Casey has had managerial experience with Toledo and Brooklyn. Quinn declares that if he had remained as general manager of Brooklyn he would have retained Casey as manager.

The late John McGraw, when pilot of the Giants, declared Stengel was one of the smartest ball players he ever had on his club.

Casey has a wealth of baseball brains," said McGraw. "On the field he always instinctively does the correct thing, while in our clubhouse sessions he offers many valuable suggestions as to how to improve the playing of our club."

Boston and New England fans will like Casey Stengel. Off the baseball field he meets people easily. He likes life and people.

On the ball field and in the clubhouse before the game, he is a driving force. He believes in giving his players a few laughs, but underneath his humor is a serious mood that is always seeking victories.

When Bill Terry made the watercrack, "Is Brooklyn in the league?" he cut Casey Stengel deep.

The watercrack cost Terry's Giants the National League pennant as Brooklyn knocked them off in a crucial series late in the season.

"Is Brooklyn in the league?" was the battle cry of Casey as he prepared his club for the series with the Giants.

Stengel will find some good material in the lineup of the Bees, and I think he will take it places.
